CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds 2s. 6d., and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.
- VI. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expense, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. Messrs. SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited, and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen, who cannot attend this Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

- 2 ABBEVILLE. LES ARMES ET BLASSONS DES ANTIENS MAIEURS
ET ESCHEVINS DE LA VILLE D'ABBEVILLE depuis l'an 1083
jusqu'à l'année 1681, avec additions jusqu'à 1790, et lors que Guy Comte de Ponthieu fit expedier lettres de Chartres portant droictes de Communes aux Bourgeois de la dicte Ville
d'Abbeville, &c., calif

1118 pp. and index, large folio. XVII-XVIII CENT.

A wonderful heraldic volume, containing hundreds of large emblazoned Coats-of-Arms, with biographies of the Mayors, &c. On the first leaf is written "Ce livre appartient a François Levesque, et a present a Mons. Maurice, Conseiller a la Senec' de Ponthieu, &c. et Siege Presidial a Abbeville 1730, et en 1777 a M. Douville, Conseiller du Roy, &c." At the beginning is a long extract from a Chronicle of England that was in the Castle of Lisle in 1470, relative to the first founding of Abbeville. Every leaf contains a chronicle of events that have occurred within the town, rendering the volume one of great value for the history of Abbeville and neighbourhood.

- 250 CHARLES (NIC.) AN EXTENSIVE COLLECTION OF GENEALOGICAL, HERALDIC, HISTORICAL AND OTHER PAPERS IN THE AUTOGRAPH OF NICHOLAS CHARLES, LANCASTER HERALD, with arms in trick, &c. folio. Temp. Eliz. and Jac. I

* * A most important collection by one of the most famous heralds of the time of James I. Among the papers is a long autograph letter from the famous William Burton, author of the History of Leic., dated Lindley, 1608. A very curious paper is entitled "A Brief report of some New-fangled names w^{ch} certayne fond conceyted men have given to theyre children in theire Baptisme."

- 251 CHARTIER. EPISTOLA MAGISTRI ALAINI CHARTIER SUPER PLANCTU CAPTIVITATIS FRANCIE, 94 pp.—TRACTATUS DE REGNO RICARDI REGIS ANGLIÆ ET QUALITER IPSE ET SUI FIDELIS MILITES FUERUNT PRODITI ET CRUDELITER OCCISI, 68 pp.—TURPINI ARCHIEPISCOPI REMENSIS CRONICON CAROLI MAGNI, 62 pp. manuscript of the fifteenth century, ON VELLUM and paper, in fine preservation, with large bookplate of Antonius Lemare, in the original oak binding, covered with leather, stamped with fleur-de-lys, roses, griffins, &c. folio. XV CENT.

* * A very important historical manuscript. It is written throughout in old French, the last work being in a different hand from the two first. A note at the beginning says the first treatise is not to be found among Chartier's printed works. The second treatise relates to the History of Richard II, and is by JEAN LE BEAU. He begins his work :

A fin que le grant fait darmes et les grans traisons qui par les guerres de France et d'Angleterre soient notablement mis en memoire perpetuelle par quoy les bons y puissent prendre exemple je Messire Jehan le Beau jadis chanoine de Saint Lambert du Liege ay mis en prose, &c.

It is apparently unpublished and possibly unique. This manuscript is contemporary with the author, who died about 1490. Turpin's Chronicle of Charlemagne is also written in old French.

- 252 CHESHIRE. Exemplificacion of the Priviledges of the County Palatine of Chester taken in the reign of Q. Elizabeth, with signature of William King at the beginning and end folio. XVI CENT.

- 253 CHESHIRE. RENTALE DOMINI HENRICI DE SUTTON ABBATIS MONASTERII SANCTI WERBURGH DE CESTRIA, 22 Ric. II, a roll 12 ft. long, written on both sides, ON VELLUM 1398
- * * This is the original roll. Henry de Sutton was elected Abbot of the monastery of St. Werburgh's, Chester, in 1386. He was, for a time, Justice of Chester, and in 1399 had licence to fortify his three principal manor houses at Little Sutton, Saughton and Ince. He died in 1413. This valuable record was quite unknown to the editors of Dugdale's "Monasticon."
- 254 CHESHIRE. Six Documents, with the signature and seals of SAMUEL PEPLOE, Bishop of Chester, attached—Papers connected with the Bishopric—Papers of the DELVES Family—Bowers' Will, &c.
- 255 CHESTERFIELD. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF PHILIP EARL OF CHESTERFIELD, b. 1694, d. 1773, TO HIS SON 3 pp. 4to. Spaa, Aug. 8
- * * A VERY FINE LETTER. After expressing the pleasure he has felt in hearing a good account of his son, he says :
- I am sure you now hear a great deal of talk about the Queen of Hungary, and the wars which she is and will be engaged in ; it is therefore right that you should know a little of that matter. The last Emperor Charles ye 6th, who was Father to this Queen of Hungary, was the last male of the House of Austria, and fearing that, as he had no sons, his dominions might at his death be divided between his daughters and consequently weakened, he settled 'em all upon his eldest daughter, the Queen of Hungary, by a publick Act which is called the Pragmatick Sanction. . . . This short account may enable you to talk the Politicks now in fashion ; and if you have a mind to be more particularly informed, &c.
- 256 CHICHELE (THOS.) STEMMATA CHICHELEANA, or a Genealogical Account of some of the Families derived from THOMAS CHICHELE, &c. whose descendants are entitled to Fellowships at All Souls', Oxford, with manuscript additions by NICHOLAS BRETT, and continued to 1842 by SIR THOMAS PHILLIPPS, BART. plates, half russia 4to. - 388 DUCKETT. ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THOMAS BURNET, SON OF BISHOP BURNET, ADDRESSED TO GEORGE DUCKETT, twenty-three letters folio. 1712-19

I have writ three Grumblers . . . the reason I make these characters of my Brothers, rather than a Club is because I would avoid imitation and the Spectator has surfeited the world with Clubs. . . The third paper is I think as fine a plan of a vision as any Addison ever gave the Town. . . I send you Serious Remarks wrote by order of the Ministers of State by Dr. Tindall, & by them you will see how stupid a writer he is, when unassisted by Collins. . . I am to be with Josephus Scaliger and Ambrosius Philips . . . on Tuesday & I can assure the former did in a very large company at my Lord's table affirm that in England he did not know a man of better parts than your proud humble servant . . . but praises are but damnd thin diet for a man who wants a place ; . . speaks of Lord Oxford, Sir T. Hanmer, Paul Methuen ; Brocas by this time has infallibly hanged himself, for his dear Corinna, Mrs. Gumley is married this very day to young Pulteney the Secretary for War ; concerning that story of Mr. Walpole's fixing a scoundrel pamphlet on me I desire you would give me an example...for I must not suffer such a blemish to be thrown upon my character...the dedication to my Lord Halifax is much altered & part of it new put in by Dick Steele...only my Ld Marlborough caresses his enemys and neglects his friends...Paul Methuen is to introduce me to L^d Halifax to-morrow and I have very good hopes of a post in the Government ; very interesting particulars about Bp. Burnet, Lord Halifax, Count Berensdorf and the King ; dines with Ld Townshend, details the subjects of their conversation ; I send you a pamphlet which my Lord Townshend has emploied me to answer and must therefore interest yourself hard to that purpose. I expect humour and satyre, &c....makes a vulgar suggestion as to Rochester's poems...I would say more but Philips and Addison both accuse me of neglecting my glass, yet bid me give your service...I have with a good deal of satisfaction...corrected your Homer. Dr. Garth & I went over it together & the Dr. was very much delighted with the performance...I send you a whim of mine which takes pretty much with the Town, 'twas the work of a drunken hour where there happened to be a printer in company. As to my prosecution it goes on still and some say the Court long to Pillory me, others that they intend to grant me a noli prosequi ...Addison's play Cato has nobly diverted the Town...Mr. Addison is at present situated with his quality burden in France but I am apt to believe that when he returns I must get honest Senex to smoak me a glass for him...the Prince and Princess remember their kind love to you and Mrs. Duckett...they desire particularly to know if the Pipe you broached when I was with you has grown fine, and hope you will keep it for their drinking ; gives particulars as to Prince Eugene, Craggs, the Dutchess of Newcastle, the Queen, Benson, Sir Peter King, &c. Every letter is full of political, social, and literary gossip, and there are various poems which would hardly bear publication.

AN EXCESSIVELY INTERESTING SERIES OF LETTERS.

- 389 DUCKETT. Original Appointments of JOHN DUCKETT to be Captain of a Company of Foot in Wilts lately commanded by Sir G. Escourt, 1626, and to be Col. of the Regiment lately commanded by Sir Edw. Baynton, 1627, both signed and sealed by the EARL OF PEMBROKE—Document signed by the Marquess of HERTFORD, Lieut.-Gen. of his Ma^{ties} Forces directing all officers to protect JOHN DUCKETT of Hartham, 1643—Original Papers relating to the Petition against BAYNTON and DUCKETT the members for CALNE—Will of LIONEL DUCKETT, 1693—Inq. p. mortem on STEPHEN DUCKETT at Calne 33 Q. Elizabeth ; and other original Papers 1 vol. folio and a packet XVI-XVII CENT.

- 390 DUCKETT. Sixty-five Deeds relating to the DUCKETT Family and their estates in QUEMERFORD, CALSTON, CALNE, and other places in Wilts, in the reign of Q. Anne, ON VELLUM, seals 1701-15
- 391 DUCKETT. A Survey of the Hundred of CALNE and Manor of CALSTON in the County of Wilts folio. 1763
- 392 DUCKETT. Thirty-seven Deeds relating to the DUCKETT Family and lands in CALNE, CALSTON, BOX, and other places in Co. Wilts, in the reigns of James II and William III, ON VELLUM 1683-99
- 393 DUCKETT. ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THOMAS BURNET, SON OF BISHOP BURNET, ADDRESSED TO GEORGE DUCKETT, twenty-two letters folio. 1716-20
- * * EXCESSIVELY INTERESTING. These letters are full of political, literary and social news of the day :

Our work is all but printed off ; Mr. Stanhope and the new scheme go on with great courage ; the government are determined on three important things, a method of paying the debt, a repeal of the occasional Conformity Bill, and a bill to regulate the Universitys. Everybody is sensible how absolutely necessary it is to curb the insolence of those two seditious seminaries.....The Archbp. of Canterbury is often privately in cabals with Atterbury ; The Bp. of Bangor has published a sermon ten times more offensive to the priests than even his book against the Nonjurors. I think this honest prelate bids very fair to succeed to that share of clerical hatred and malice which my father (Bishop Burnet) met with during his lifetime ; have sent you half-a-dozen of your Homerides, and if you should dislike the preface I have put to it, or be displeased with the compliment in it to Mr. Pope, I must lay the blame upon my friends in Town ...only the compliment to him seemed proper because Addison and the rest of the Rhiming Gang have dropt their resentment to the Lordlike Man.....It has very often made me smile at the pitifull soul of the man, when I have seen Addison caressing Pope, whom at the same time he hates worse than BeelzebubFor my part Garth made Mr. Pope and myself dine together and would have us friends.....and to speak it is an ill natured little false Dog, but he does not want for a great deal of very diverting satyirical wit ; a poetical letter of a loose nature ; political notes, speaks of the Prince, imitates verses of Sir J. Suckling ; made consul at Lisbon ; Town taken up with the Bill about the Scotch Peers, &c. ; as for my Waiter's place at Court, I confess I am heartily sick of it, &c. ; success only possible by continual soliciting ; I daresay there are a dozen at least now in the nation that believe themselves fit to command the forces, as many.....to be at the head of the Treasury. What was it made the first ministry in Q^e Anne's time continue so many years ? Why nothing but this that there was no man that pretended to command an army beyond my L^d Marlbro or direct a Treasury equal to L^d Godolphin, &c. . Gives a long and most interesting account how the Court spends its time at Hampton Court ; Walpole and the Speaker were so sure of carrying the division as to lay very considerable wagers ; the session will be over in three weeks and then I may get something done for me, and I rather expect because Addison will be out of his employment, who though he professes much outward friendship to me and for me yet has underhand been my inveterate enemy ever since our letter to him which he never can forget and forgive. If Addison goes out, say you, who comes in. Young Craggs, quoth I, will be made Secretary of State ; my Lord Townshend and Walpole rail at Stanhope as a deceiver, &c. ; Walpole talks of throwing up his post, w^{ch} is an insolence to a sovereign, scarce pardonable. Pope is coming out with a play, in which everyone of our modern poets are ridiculed ; many details regarding foreign politics ; the King designs to make a progress towards York,.....nothing would contribute so much toward curing our country fools, as the sight of the man, whom they have had so vile a picture of. My left-hand wife was delivered of a fine girl on Aug. 2 ; speaks of South Sea Stock ; the Swedish Expedition is not such a jest as most people make of it ; speaks of the Duke of Ormond, Sacheverell, the King of Sweden's death, Lord Townshend, Col. Long the astrologer, Sherlock, Snape, the Duke of Kingston ; tells a story about his father Bp. Burnet, &c. Every letter is brimful of interest.

- 394 DUCKETT. An Important Collection of Twenty-eight Deeds relating to the Family of Duckett and their estates in Co. Wilts, during the reigns of James I and Charles I, ON VELLUM, seals 1609-1646

- 396 DUCKETT. ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE OF GEORGE WALMESLY, ADDRESSED TO GEORGE DUCKETT 1711-15
- * * * These interesting letters are full of political, literary and social news of the day. Walmesly was also a friend of Burnet by whom he is spoken of in some of his letters to Duckett, as able and talented.
- 397 DUCKETT. ORIGINAL COURT ROLL BOOK OF THE MANOR OF TROWBRIDGE DAUNTSEY, in the reign of Q. Elizabeth folio. 1594, &c.
- 398 DUCKETT. A GENERALL PARDON GRANTED BY CHARLES I TO JOHN DUCKETT of Hartham, Co. Wilts, with a very fine impression of the Great Seal of Charles I attached, ON VELLUM, in fine preservation 1624
- 399 DUCKETT. ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESSED TO GEORGE DUCKETT BY THOMAS BURNET, SON OF BISHOP BURNET, FROM 1712 TO 1718, thirty-seven long letters folio
- * * * AN UNPUBLISHED CORRESPONDENCE OF EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST. The following notes give but a very inadequate idea of their contents:

Baron SCHUTZ, Ambassador of Hanover, demanded of the Lord Chancellor on Monday the summoning of the Duke of Cambridge to the present parliament; considerable confusion ensues; four Cabinet councils called on the subject; LD. PAGET sent by the Court to stop the Duke; BURNET sent as resident to Ratisbon; much foreign business to be done before the K. leaves for Hanover; GORDON'S pamphlet attributed to BURNET; at work on a pamphlet to be called the Present State of Grub Street; the King seems really to go on in all his affairs triumphant, and will in spite of all opposers be y^e moderator of Europe; mortified at D^r. SAMBER'S opinion of his pamphlet that sold to the tune of 2000, equal to the sale of ASGILL'S Apology, "a book that ASGILL prest me to print and most of the Town take to be his"; "if D^r. SAMBER has no more skill in physick than in pamphlets the Lord help his patients"; encloses letter of ASGILL; TRENCHARD and I are grown such very great friends; you will have perused my "Letters to the People," it makes a damned noise; gives a long and most interesting account of the duel between LORD MOHUN and the DUKE OF HAMILTON in which the former met his death; "The rest of your history I don't think open enough"; "Don't reflect on people that don't understand the Tale of the Tub, for my father (Bp. Burnet) when first he saw the book said he declared he could find neither head nor Tale in it"; considers Duckett's History nearly equal to the Tale of the Tub; the Speaker has expiated his campaign in Flanders by a glorious one in St. Stephen's chappel; wishes the D. OF CAMBRIDGE may come over, and knows who must decamp if he does; as to STEEL'S Lovers Sir Ant. is L. T., Brickdust is Tom F. who first attackt STEEL; gives a long account of the death of his father BP. BURNET; "That nothing ever gave me so thorough a shock as to see a man who had all his lifetime been struggling against the enemys of our Constitution in the behalf of this very succession should drop off just as it came to take place"; "I can assure you Homerides notwithstanding your anger at it is universally approved"; "for POPE as he is a fellow of a contemptible figure is the object of the Town's pity," &c. "I believe you guess right that ADDISON did this out of no manner of goodwill to me but . . . shall think I was wise in following his advice"; speaks of KECK, LORD OXFORD, BOLINGBROKE, ATTERBURY, ORMOND, &c.; "that copy of verses of a 'Lady . . . herself at Cato' was written by POPE and ROWE, both in ridicule of those that cryed at

Cato” ; long letter on various plays, speaks of ROWE’s plays, VOLPONE, and MRS. OLDFIELD the famous actress ; amusing letter about SACHEVERELL, &c. ; many facts relating to ASGILL ; refers to his brother Gilbert’s work ; sends six “ of my letters to the Freethinker ” ; “ as to our Specimen Ishew’d great part of it to Mr. ADDISON who advised me . . . and secondly to strike out all the reflections upon the poor fellow’s (POPE) person,” &c. ; “ the title of it I have altered much for the better and it is Homerides, or a letter to Mr. POPE on his intended translation of Homer by Sir Iliad Doggrell, and that POPE may see I could be sharp on his person,” &c. ; eight thousand copies of my letter to L^d HALIFAX gone through the Town ; L^d HALIFAX pleased with it ; “ ADDISON is so outwardly fond of me you would be amazed at it and we often drink together ” ; many details as to the Pretender’s conspiracy ; much relative to Dr. SNAPE, HOADLY, Bishop of Bangor, MILLS, CRAIG, the mathematician ; “ who would have expected to have seen the head of the poets (MATHEW PRIOR) a Secretary of State ” ; much relative to WALPOLE, WHARTON, OXFORD, the DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH, TOWNSHEND, STEELE, EARLE, the PRETENDER, CARLILE, D’ARANDA, WISHART ; E. OF OXFORD and BOLINGBROKE, are to be impeached ; PRIOR and TOM HARLEY also taken into custody ; “ have already printed off half the book and have a very good expectation of the thing. . . . DICK STEELE has a good opinion of its sale ” ; many particulars relative to the Court, the DUKE OF ORMOND, LORD STAFFORD, Sir THOS. HANMER, the October Club, SIR ISAAC NEWTON, &c. ; “ ADDISON is now spending his last hours at Bristol waters, nobody imagines he will live long considering to how little purpose he has lived,” &c. ; “ I am entirely justified in your opinion of my book, STEEL objected to the very same passages ” ; “ I was in DYER’s letter to SALISBURY set down as a Mohock.” Portions of these letters and poetical epistles to Duckett would hardly bear publication, being written in too free a style. Included in the volume are letters of SIR J. THORNHILL, the artist, JOHN ASGILL, SYD. THORNHILL, and others containing much interesting news.

- 400 DURHAM. THE VISITATION OF THE COUNTYE PALANTYNE OF DURHAM, TAKEN BY WILLIAM FLOWER, Esquier, otherwise called Norroy Kinge of Armes, &c. and in his company Robert Glover, alias Portcullis Pursuyvant of Armes in the yeare 1575, with index, half calf 82 pp. folio. XVIII CENT.

* * This splendid historical roll relates to the contest between Edward II as Duke of Guyenne, and the famous Abbey of St. Croix at Bordeaux.

- 413 EDWARD II. ROTULUS EXPENSARUM DOMINI REGIS EDWARDI FILII REGIS EDWARDI AB VIII DIE JULII ANNO REGNI SUI XVII INCEPIENTE USQUE XIX DIEM OCTOBRI PROXIME SEQUENTIS TEMPORE ROGERI DE WALTHAM CUSTODIS ET ROBERTI DE WODEHOUSE CONTRAROTULATORIS GARDEROBE SUE, a roll nearly ten feet long, ON VELLUM 1323

* * This is the original household roll of Edward II in which are recorded his daily expenses during his progress in the north of England. He appears to have spent the anniversary of his accession to the throne at Faxflete, in fact most of his time during this period was spent in Yorkshire, among the places visited being Eserick, Kirkham, Pickering, Ingleby, and many others. September was passed at Darlington, Barnard Castle, Richmond, Beverley, Skipton, &c., and October at Colne, Blackburn, Chorley, &c., in Lancashire, a very valuable record relating to one of our early Kings.

- 414 EDWARD III. SES SONT LES NOSMES DES PRIMIRE FONDEURS DEL ORDRE DU GARTIER E AUTRES AL TEMPS DU ROY. H. VII, COMME SONT EN LE CHASTEAU DE WINDSORE—Milites honoratissimi Ordinis Periselidis elect. tempore H. VII et VIII—Milites Ordinis S. Georgii electi tempore Edw. - 418 EDWARD III. LIBER ASSISARUM AB ANNO 19 AD ANNUM 44 REGIS EDWARDI III, a very fine manuscript of the fourteenth century, beautifully written, ON VELLUM, with coloured capitals, calf folio. XIV CENT.
- * * This fine manuscript is of very great importance for the history of the period and records cases of great interest. In most cases the names of the judges before whom the assizes were held are given, as well as the names of the towns. Inserted at the end of the volume in a later hand (probably Fleetwood's, as he owned property in Bucks) are the COURT ROLLS OF THE MANOR OF ILMERE CUM ASTON, Co. BUCKS, for the years of 16, 21 and 22 Richard II, 12 Edw. IV, 20, 24, 26, 27 and 28 Edward IV, 30 Henry VIII, 2 Edward VI, 1 Philip and Mary. William Fleetwood, the famous Recorder of London in the time of Q. Elizabeth, has written his name on the fly-leaf, and another owner was Thomas Peterson.

- 478 FRANCE. CHRONIQUE DEPUIS LE COMMENCEMENT DU MONDE JUSQU'A L'ANNÉE 1339, manuscript of the end of the fourteenth or first part of the fifteenth century, finely written, ON VELLUM, with large miniature of the author presenting his book, and border decorated with flowers and birds, capitals in red and blue, in fine preservation, calf gilt, g. e. folio. XIV-XV CENT.
- * * This appears to be the original chronicle compiled by Droet, for at the end we find, written in red, "Et hic finis: Droet A. N." and in the miniature on the first leaf, in which the author is shown presenting his manuscript, are the initials "A. D." The origin of the work is stated in the prologue as follows: "La cause de faire ceste compilation fut la grant instance d'un grant Baron de France, lequel comme il eust desire de savoir en quel temps," &c. Droet appears to be unknown to bibliographers, and the work is unmentioned by Le Long in his "Bibliothèque Histor. de la France." The interest of the volume is increased by the fact that it belonged to René Duc d'Alençon, who was imprisoned by Louis XI in the fifteenth century. His autograph signature appears on the last leaf.

- 479 FRANCE. A Large Collection of Arms of French and German Families, finely emblazoned on separate sheets OF VELLUM and paper, bound in 1 vol. 4to. 1626, &c.

- 480 FRANCE. Succession à la Couronne des Francois, des Princes, et de leurs Prérrogatives, et de la Maison Royale, neatly written large folio. XVII CENT.

* * The above manuscript is of considerable value ; it is divided into three books. The first treats of the succession to the crown, at various periods of the French monarchy, followed by a treatise on the Salique law ; the second treats of princes of the blood ; and the third on the royal house, its origin, &c., followed by a disquisition of the several regencies which have occurred at different times in the French monarchy.

- 482 FRANCE. Original Collections on the History, Literature, Religion, Politics, Botany, Natural History of France, &c. by M. MONSURES 14 vol. 4to. XVIII CENT.

* * Monsures speaks of his works in a letter :

Ecrit à M. de Brienne, Archeveque de Toulouse, Chef du Conseil Royal des Finances et Ministre d'Etat en 1787. . . . Il y a plus de trente ans que je m'occupe de ce que a rapport aux finances quoique j'aie si mal administré les miennes ; et il y a peu de parties du Gouvernement et de la Politique sur lesquelles je n'ai écrit," &c.

- 483 FRANCE. AGATES, CRISTAUX, PORCELAINES, BRONZES, PENDULES ET BUREAUX, ET AUTRES CURIOSITEZ QUI SONT DANS LE CABINET DE MONSIEUR LE DAUPHIN A VERSAILLES, INVENTORIEZ EN 1689, beautifully written, the titles in red, blue and gold capitals, at the beginning of each division the capital letters are in gold intertwined with beautifully painted flowers, finely bound in old red morocco, with the arms of the Dauphin on the sides large folio. 1689

* * This is the original catalogue of the treasures belonging to the Dauphin. Each article is fully described, the cost and value are given, and the names of the people by whom some of them were given is inserted. Included in the collection are numerous pieces of "Porcelaines données par les Siamois."

Les Porcelaines et les pièces d'orfèvrerie en or, données par les Siamois à Louis XIV, d'une rareté sans pareille, étoient remises de suite par le Roi au Dauphin, pour augmenter sa précieuse collection ; mais les réformes faites au commencement de l'année 1690, pour subvenir aux frais de la guerre, un édit non moins ruineux pour le peuple, que nécessaire aux dessins du Roi, ordonna à toutes les personnes qui avoient de l'argenterie excédant le poids d'une once, de la porter à la monnoie ; et pour en donner l'exemple, le Roi y fit porter quelques-uns de ses meubles en or et en argent. Ceux du Dauphin éprouvèrent le même sort, au-moins en apparence ; c'est ce que l'on remarque dans le catalogue, où il est dit en marge, écriture du temps, que les articles portant croix resteront au cabinet, et que les autres seront transportés dans l'Hôtel des Monnoies, 1690.

- 484 FRANCISCANS. BARTHOLOMEI DE PISIS DE CONFORMITATE VITE BEATI FRANCISCI ad vitam Domini Jesu Christi Nostri Redemptoris libri II—Privilegia concessa per diversos Pontifices Ordini Fratrum Minorum, manuscript of the fifteenth century, written partly on vellum and partly on paper in double columns, capitals and titles rubricated thick folio. Richelieu, &c. in old red morocco, with LL interlaced on the corners and back 1044 pp. large folio
- * * * An important manuscript for French history. It is beautifully written, and ruled with red lines and was probably drawn up for the library of Louis XIV. The index is very extensive and fills two-hundred-and-sixty-four pages.
- 491 GARRICK. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF DAVID GARRICK, the Actor, to Sir William Bunbury 3 pp. 4to. Chiswick, July 28 [1752]
- * * * A fine specimen. Relative to Dr. Edward Young's play. He regrets the Doctor did not entrust him with his play: "however delicate he may be about his play I can assure you, Sir, I am as delicate in my care of the Performances that are put into my hands as (I hope) I am punctual in keeping my word and doing justice to y^e Gentlemen who write 'em," &c.
- 492 GARTER (ORDER OF). REGISTRUM, quod a tegumento cœruleo vocatur, Liber Cœrulens, Clarissimi Ordinis Militaris Garterii nomine appellati, ab anno Marie primo ad 19 Jac. primi, with bookplate of Sir Geo. Nayler, Garter, calf fol temp. Jac. I
- * * * This valuable Register of the Order of the Garter is in the autograph of the learned Nicholas Charles, Lancaster Herald in the reign of James I. Charles died in 1613 The last nineteen pages appear to be in the hand of Dale Suffolk Herald. John Anstis, Garter King, made great use of this manuscript for his history of the Order of the Garter, and has made many valuable marginal additions.
- 493 Genealogical Collections, with pedigrees, inscriptions, &c. folio. XVII-XVIII CENT.
- 494 GENEALOGY. PEDIGREES OF MANWOOD, RUTTON, SANDWICH, THURBARNE, Dekewer, Nower, Cholmeley, Conant, arms in trick, with drawings of Monastic and other seals, and antiquities, also collections relating to Sandwich, Hythe, Boxgrave Priory, Ipswich, &c. 4to
- 495 GENLIS. LONG HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF MADAME DE GENLIS, with portrait $1\frac{1}{4}$ pp. folio, closely written. Juin 14, 1816
- * * * A VERY FINE SPECIMEN.

It is written apparently to some friend high in the confidence of the King, and to whom she lays open all her reasons for considering herself entitled to the favour she is applying for. She speaks of her new edition of Le petit la Bruyère, and says that she would not strike out the phrase, "Si l'on voyoit à découvert le cour d'un conquerant, il fervit horreur." And after enumerating all the works she has written for the advancement of morals and religion, she begs as a favour, of which she thinks she is deserving, apartments either in the Chateau de Vincennes, or in that of St. Germain. It is the first time in her life that she has ever asked anything for herself. At the conclusion of her long and interesting letter she asserts that, although her request should not be granted, her sentiments of respect and profound attachment to his Majesty will not be diminished; still she trusts not to incur the humiliation of a refusal.

- 496 GEORGE III. THE ORIGINAL WARRANT, WITH SIGNATURE OF GEORGE III attached, re-voking the annuity of £6000 to the Prince of Wales, for the support of the Princess Charlotte, and granting her £13,000 for her establishment with arrears, &c. countersigned by Lord Grenville, &c.

3 pp. folio. June 2, 1806

- 497 GERMAIN. LE CHEMIN DE PARADIS PAR JEHAN GERMAIN, EVESQUE DE CHALONS, manuscript of the fifteenth century, written on vellum and paper, with the capitals and titles in red, calf folio. XV CENT.

* * "Explicit . . . MCCCCLVII, &c." An important and valuable work. In the prologue Germain relates particulars as to himself and the books he had written, and how he caused certain large panels of tapestry, the subjects of which he describes, to be worked and erected in his church. For the history of early French tapestry the particulars given here are curious and of great interest.

- 498 GERSON (JOH.) BERNARDUS DE GRATIA ET LIBERO ARBITRIO—Tractatus cujusdam contemplativi de veritate et pace—Epistola Bernardi ad Willelmum Abbatem, &c.—Bernardus de duodecim gradibus humilitatis—Joh. * * Iste liber est Monasterii Canonicorum Regularium in Rebdorff domusque S. Johannis Baptiste Eystetensis diocesis.

- 499 GILCHRIST. TWENTY-SEVEN ORIGINAL LETTERS OF OCTAVIUS GILCHRIST, TO SIR EGERTON BRYDGES AND OTHERS

1 vol. 4to. 1799-1814

* * A most interesting series of letters. Gilchrist was the author of "An Examination of the Charges of Ben Jonson's enmity towards Shakespeare," and other Works. These letters almost entirely refer to the poets, Beaumont and Fletcher, Lord Bacon, Wilkes, Sidney, Dryden, Ben Jonson, Milton, Lindsay, Cowper, Crashaw, &c., and to many of the Elizabethan period. Writing of Walter Scott he says:

I need not ask if you have seen Rokeby . . . It falls in my humble judgement far short of Marmion in vigour, and of the Minstrel and the Lady of the Lake in poetical description; of the story I say little, for though his foundations are never good for much, this seems to me inferior to all the rest and appears to be compounded of various "Ballets of Action" as presented at the circus and Ashley's Amphitheatre. My friends of the Quarterly (in return, belike, for similar favours) seem resolved to reverse the old epigram upon women, and tell him, There's nothing wrong you say, there's nothing wrong you do, and as long as the booksellers unstring their purses liberally, friend Walter seems willing to believe the tale. In sooth, the times are mightily changed since the days of Ben—when poetry was, &c.

- 531 HENAULT. AN EXTENSIVE ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESSED TO THE FAMOUS PRESIDENT HENAULT 2 vol. 4to.

President Henault, member of the French Academy, author of the celebrated "Abregé," was "Surintendant de la Maison de la Reine." He was the intimate friend of Madame du Deffant, that celebrated lady, who being 80 years old and blind, was amoureuse of Horace Walpole. This collection includes letters written by the most celebrated French political men of the time, namely, the Duke of Choiseul (the minister who effected the suppression of the Jesuits in France), Marquis de Paulmy (minister of War, and great collector of books and manuscripts) while he was Ambassador in Poland, the Comte de Noailles, Molé, the Count de Tressan, the Marshal de Belleisle, Marshal Beson, Duc de Chatelet, Michel Mauduit, Fitzjames, Cte. Rottenbourg, Duc de Nivernois, &c. besides various autograph essays by Henault himself. The greater portion of these letters are strictly confidential, and therefore without signature; but from the contents of some of them it is easy to guess the names of the writers. This correspondence contains the most curious anecdotes respecting Voltaire, Frederic II of Prussia, King Stanislas, Madame du Deffant, the Court of Sweden, and French Society of the time.

- 532 HENRI II. ORIGINAL LETTER OF HENRI II, King of France, "a nos trescher et bien amez les Prevost et Echevins de Paris," b. 1518, d. 1559 1 p. folio. Vautuyant, 27 Mars, 1559

He mentions how he had sent the Earl of Carlisle to explain to him the reasons why he had been unable to inform him of Prince Charles' journey, and thanks the King for having received in good faith the apologies tendered to him on the occasion of the Prince having passed through his kingdom incognito. Prince Charles was on a journey to the Court of Spain.

- 624 JAMES I. SONGS, VERSES, SONNETS, HEROICAL POEMS, &c. a most curious collection, written about 1604, in a neat small hand, very like the autograph of Ben Jonson folio

This singularly curious volume commences with Newes from Graves-end, anno 1604, with a Post from Winchester, sent to Nobodie. The poems are headed, the Cause of the Plague, the Horrors of the Plague, the Curse of the Plague, the Necessity of ditto, which finishes April 6th, 1604, followed by Looke to it, for I'll stab yea, signed S. R., Deathe's great Challenge, and separate poems, addressed to tyrant kinges, wicked magistrates, curious divines, covetous lawyers, upstart courtiers, wealthie citizens, greadie usurers, cursed swearers, quacks, gentlemen of base bloode, counterfeit captains, dissembling souldiers, unkinde parentes, disobedient children, atheists, wretched husbandmen, swagging ruffians, drunkards, proud gentlewomen, traytors, pandes, lease-mongers, adulterers, prodigalls, gluttons, sooth-sayers or figure-flinges, fine dames, spend thriftes. There flies my dart, light where it will, 1604. Drayton's Owle, 1604. Rowland letting of humors bloud in the head vaine, with a new moristo, daunced by seven satyres, upon the bottome of Diogenes' tubbe, 1600. - 626 JAMES II. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF JAMES II WHEN DUKE OF YORK, to "the Earle of Rochester," with fine seal
Windsor, July 2, 1684

* * FINE AND VERY RARE.

I had a long conversation with the King this morning concerning you, which will not displease you, I beleve when I shall tell it you. I found him very easy, and not at all unwilling to talke with me. The Duchess of Portsmouth makes great professions to you, and I am confident Lord Sunderland is true to you, &c.

- 627 JAMES III (the Pretender). REMARKS UPON THE BIRTH OF THE PRETENDED PRINCE OF WALES, by the present Ld. B—p of W—r, not taken notice of in other books on that subject
13 pp. 4to

* * MOST CURIOUS. It is endorsed in the autograph of Thomas Burnet, son of Bishop Burnet, "Papers sent me from the Bp. of Worcester on my 'New Proofs, &c.' Whether the Whigs or Torys are in Place, the Nation's sure to get an Act of Grace." (see Burnet's Letters, lots 383, 388, &c.)

From 76 to 87 we heard of nothing but mis-carriages, but then it was resolved that a child must be had.....About this time it was given out by the Popish priest of Chester that the Queen was with child of a son, and being asked how he knew it was a son, his answer was, because the King had pray'd to St. Winifred for a child and a son, and the Saint's rule was, to grant all that was asked or nothing, and therefore since it appeared that the Queen was with child, they might surely conclude it to be a son.....The Queen mis-carry'd on Easter Monday.....Coming to the bedchamber she heard a lamentable voice, crying 'I am undone, I am undone,' at which being surprised, she cast about to find from whence the voice came, and found it came from the bed, where she saw the Queen sitting up and beating herself in a frightful manner, and using these words, at which the C—s herself being ready to sink, the March—s of Po—s came flying upon her, and laying hold of her, said 'Madam, what mak'st you here?'.....Captn. Wright and a boatswain informed my L—d B—p that they brought over with the Count—s of Tere—from Ireland, two big bellied women, and they lodged with the said Countess... The Q—being in bed, after comes Delabady the dry nurse, and kneeling down by her (as she herself deposeth) gave her some cloths for the Q—, in which cloths his Lordship thinks the child newly brought from Mrs. Grey's to have been, for soon after this, the child was brought of the bed, not naked, but in some loose cloths, &c.

- 628 JAMES III (the Pretender). HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF RICHARD COLEIRE, relative to the birth of the Pretender
3 pp. 4to. Richmond, Jan. 20, 1729

* * AN EXTREMELY CURIOUS AND INTERESTING LETTER. The writer says:—

I went, yesterday, to obey your commands with zeal and pleasure, &c..... Just before King James went away, Mrs. Lloyd, my Lady Turner's daughter, came to my grandmother Eling, and asked her whether she could help her to a wet nurse for a person of quality. She told her she could, and recommended her to Smith, the tileman's wife, upon Richmond Hill, whom she engaged and carried down, dressed in a serge gown and petty-coat to the Old Palace, and put her in possession of the King's child. With this child, she says, the nurse went soon after into France, where she stayed some years before she sent for her husband and family, maintaining them in the meantime with money and good presents, till at length they went over to her, where the eldest daughter was well married, and the youngest put into a nunnery. This, Sir, is the whole of my conversation with Mrs. Laurence; and if the narrative is to be relied on, it proves no more than this, that the child put into nurse Smith's keeping, for anything that appears to the contrary, was little Master the Third, &c.

- 629 JAMES III (the Pretender). CONTEMPORARY COPY OF A PROCLAMATION BY JAMES STUART, the Pretender, protesting against the usurpation of the Crown by William III

3 pp. folio. Given at our Court at Plombieres, 29 Aug. 1714, in the 13th year of our reign

* * * VERY INTERESTING, setting forth his grievances, asserting his right to the Crown of England, &c.

From all which it is plain our people can never enjoy any lasting peace or happiness till they settle the succession again in the right line and recall y^e immediate lawful heire, and the only born Englishman now left of the Royal Family, &c. He concludes with a protest against the injustice of the usurpation, &c.

677 LAFAYETTE. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF GENERAL LAFAYETTE
TO M. SIEVKING 15 Dec. 1798

* * An interesting letter.

Comment est ce que votre Senat n'a pas encore relaché les officiers Français natifs d'Irlande qu'un guet à pends du Ministre Anglais a mis dans vos prisons?
il me semble que cette conduite est aussi impolitique qu'elle est injuste même aux yeux de ceux qui croiraient pouvoir separer les deux idées.

678 LAMB. A HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF CHARLES LAMB, the Essayist, to R. Childs folio. Edmonton, Monday [Sep. 15, 1834]

* * An extremely interesting letter which he signs "Ch. Lamb alias Elia."

The volume which you seem to want is not to be had for love or money. I with difficulty procured a copy for myself. Yours is gone to enlighten the Tawny Hindoos. What a supreme felicity to the author (only he is no traveller) on the Ganges or the Hydaspes (Indian streams) to meet the smutty Gentoo ready to burst with laughing at the Tale of Bo-Bo You are aware that a second Series of the Essays is published . . . call'd the "Last Essays of Elia," and I am told is not inferior to the former What a funny name Bungay is. I never dreamt of a correspondent thence. I used to think of it as some Utopian town or borough in Gotham land, &c.

à Paris, 31 Aoust, 1643
 * * FINE AND RARE. An excessively early signature of Louis XIV, as he was then only five years old. It is signed by him: "La Regne Regente sa mère présente."
- 734 LOUIS XIV. Registre des Commissions des Tailles et autres impositions en 1668—Commission des Tailles en 1661, manuscripts, very neatly written, in rich old red morocco, with gilt leaves 2 vol. large folio. XVII CENT.
 The Taille, that odious tax in France from which the Clergy, the Noblesse, and many others were exempted, was permanently instituted by Charles VI for the payment of his Companies of Ordonnance (the foundation of the French regular army), a force not very considerable, but the first, except mere body guards, which had been raised in any part of Europe, as a standing army. A Poll-tax in England had caused Wat Tyler's Rebellion, and the Taille caused the insurrection of Guienne in 1452, which for a few months restored that province to the English crown. In France, however, the tax remained till the revolution. These MSS. appear to have belonged to some high official personage from their rich binding, and the arms impressed on the backs and sides, a squirrel, surmounted with coronet.
- 735 LOUIS XIV. Recueil de Lettres écrites par Louis XIV après la Mort de Cardinal Mazarin, à tous les Rois, Princes, &c. de l'Europe, calf folio. XVII CENT.

4 pp. large folio. Fontainebleau, 25 Oct. 1726

* * RARE. A LETTER OF EXTRAORDINARY HISTORIC INTEREST. It is written throughout in cipher, but has the translation written between the lines.

.... Il est question de détruire l'opinion ou la Cour de Vienne est encore, et quelle repand avec affection dans toute l'Europe, dans la supposition que la République d'Hollande nest, ny en volonté, ny en état de prendre des résolutions de vigueur et pour défendre ses intérêts attaquez : pendant que cette opinion subsiste il est aisé de sentir que la Cour de Vienne n'embrace point sérieusement des sentimens de paix. Aujourd'huy meme on la voit principalement occupée à faire indirectement des propositions captieuses uniquement dans la vue d'entretenir l'esprits de letargie qui regne dans la république et de donner des armes à ceux qui, &c. Rien ne seroit si important à la République que de s'estre mis d'avance dans un état de force suffisant pour sa défense avec l'esperance que cette démarche pourroit empêcher peutestre le feu de la guerre Toutes ces circonstances qui semblent annoncer la guerre pourroient cependant encore produire le retour de la paix si toutes les Puissances alliez montroient unanimement par le préparatifs une résolution absolue de soutenir la guerre, &c. La guerre est inevitable si l'on montre de la foiblesse mais elle peut on n'avoir pas lieu ou estre de peu de duree si l'on se conduit," &c.

folio. XI CENT.

Apparently written by an Anglo-Saxon Scribe, with capitals illuminated in colours, the first being a representation of the Madonna and Child. Many of the Legends are highly amusing, and have furnished to Poets subjects for their Lais and Fabliaux. Several of the very curious Stories contained in the Miracula were afterwards translated and embodied in the Contes Dévots, so celebrated during the middle ages, but which should more properly have been called Contes libertins. Some are in verse, and several relate to England (which strengthens the supposition of the manuscript having been written in England), as it appears from the following beginning of one of them : "Asserunt antiqui relatores britanniam dictam maiorem, ad distantiam minoris, quæ partes incolit occidentis, fere præ omnibus terris opulentam, omnibus divitiis refertam, ac nobilitatam urbibus castellis et vicis et ut prediximus nulla est regio similis in diviciis." It is very interesting to trace back to the eleventh century and to a Latin origin, as is often the case in other fictions of the middle ages, those celebrated Miracula, which were translated into French verse by Gautier de Coinsy and other poets of the thirteenth century. The whole of the tracts contained in this volume are very curious, but they do not seem to have been all written by the same scribe. At the end there is an old inscription, defaced at the beginning, and showing that the manuscript was offered to some church, with an imprecative formula, which bears another testimonial to its antiquity, "si quis eum abstulerit iram dei incurrat et sit anathema hic et in eternum fiat fiat." In this volume, which has been erroneously lettered on the back by the bookbinder, Sallustius, the whole of the numerical figures are written according to the ancient Roman alphabetical system.

- 820 NEWMAN. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF CARDINAL NEWMAN TO EDWARD WALFORD, with envelope
The Oratory, Hagley Road, Bm. Aug. 27, 1854
 What you say to me about yourself, of course is very painful. I will not permit myself to believe you have suffered more than a temptation. We will all bear you, and your intention in the matter in mind, though I shall not of course say anything of what you have told me. I am truly glad that Dr. Manning has been of use to you . . . I suppose some day or other the University will get into motion, but we do not see a furlong in advance.

- 919 PINKERTON. ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE OF JOHN PINKERTON, and Thomas Percy, Bishop of Dromore 1 vol. 4to. 1784-94

* * A most interesting series of letters on Scottish and Irish literature and poetry.

As to one point in the essay prefix to these poems I must beg indulgence and that is the setting aside the authority of the Old Testament as to the origin of nations and other philosophical points. I hold the Christian religion in the highest reverence and nothing in my writings shall ever bely that reverence nor injure sound morality but the Judaic I do not esteem either in rites or belief, &c.....yet your Lordship will hardly believe that I should be accused of impiety by many hot headed zealots here because in my Letters of Literature I denied the sublimity and beauty of many passages in the Old Testament and have otherwise indulged freedom of thought, &c. The Bishop in reply "says I cannot but lament our difference of opinion in what I think some very essential points, as many others, as well as myself, think them of great importance to the welfare of society, the least to be wished is, that this departure from rec^d opinions should not be officiously or unnecessarily obtruded on the world," &c.

- * * * Included in the volume are some very interesting letters of Chas. Pinfold addressed to "Mr. Pinfold att the Prerogative Office," dated from Rome and Frankfort, 1702, giving interesting particulars of the stirring events of the period. He mentions having seen at Loretto the present "w^{ch} the late King James's Queen gave, when she desired a Prince, an angell of massy gold, holding a heart in its hand richly adorned with diamonds, and is valued att above 10,000 guineas," &c.
- 930 POEMS. VERSES, PLAYS, POEMS, &C., BY DR. JOHN HOADLY, SON OF BISHOP HOADLY AND THE CORRESPONDENT OF DAVID GARRICK, the original manuscript, with Hoadley's book-plate, calif 4 vol. folio. XVIII CENT.
- An entertaining collection, mostly unpublished. Among other articles, are the Earl of Warwick, an historical play; Love's Revenge, a dramatic pastoral, dedicated to the Duchess of Bedford, set to music by Dr. Greene, 1734—Love's Artifice, a mask, set to music by Mr. Stanley; Phœbe, a pastoral opera, 1747; the Force of Truth, 1744; Judgment of Hercules, Jephtha, an oratory, 1739; the Contrast, 1731; the Housekeeper, a comedy, 1782; poems on King George I; songs; ballad on Miss Cradock's being overturned in the River Avon; the Country Parson; on the marriage of Lord Russell with Lady Diana Spencer; on the death of Mr. Wilkes; receipt to make poetical pudding; to Hoadly, on his marriage, by C. Plumtre, T. Anguish, G. Stubbes, &c.; various Love verses; to the Hon. P. Yorke, on his first going to Cambridge; death of the late Queen; epigrams on the rebellion; on his Majesty's re-delivering the seals to the Duke of Newcastle and Lord Harrington; to Garrick, on his recovery, and various others. The "Biographia Dramatica" says "He (Hoadly) left several dramatic works in manuscript behind him, and among them the Housekeeper (which is in these vols.) a farce, on the plan of High Life below Stairs, in favour of which piece it was rejected by Garrick."
- 931 POETRY. The Paradyse of Daynty Devises—The Boke of Nurture for Men, Servauntes and Chyldren, with notes, &c. 4to. XVIII CENT.
- * * * The first work is in the autograph of John Brand, and the second in that of William Herbert, the author of "Typographical Antiquities."
- 932 POGGII (G.) INVECTIVARUM IN LAURENTIUM VALLAM, THOMAM REATINUM ET FELICEM ANTIPAPAM LIBER, manuscript of the fifteenth century written by an Italian scribe, ON VELLUM, broad margins, original oak boards with clasp; from the Celotti collection folio. XV CENT.

- 934 PONTIUS. LE ROMAN DU ROY PONTIUS ET DE LA BELLE SIDOINE, manuscript of the fifteenth century, on paper, calf gilt 170 pp. folio. XV CENT.

* * Manuscripts of this early Romance are uncommon. The "Pontius" is followed by a French poem beginning "Mourir fault," &c.

- 935 PONTIFICES. DE VITIS ET GESTIS PONTIFICUM AD ALEXANDRUM III, manuscript of the twelfth century, finely written on stout vellum, with the titles and capitals in red 8vo. XII CENT.

* * A most valuable and early chronicle of the lives of the Popes. The account of Nicholas Brakespeare, who in 1154 became Pope Adrian IV (though called Adrian III in this MS.) fills twenty-six pages. The chronicle ends in 1168. It would appear to have belonged to the library of St. Mark's, Venice. A note says "MS. destinato dall' Ab. Morelli per la Biblioteca di S. Marco, e contrassegnato collo stemma seguente"; and below is the bookplate.

- 936 PORTER. TWO HOLOGRAPH LETTERS OF JANE PORTER, the Novelist, to S. J. Pratt each 4 pp. 4to. 1807

* * Most interesting.

Therefore what we do to spread its fair fame, must be done upon the broad basis of right! We must not ask any favour of the Reviewers, only request that they will give an unprejudiced path to honest criticism. This is all, I think, that an honourable reviewer ought to wish, or an honourable author desire. . . . Explains that she has been kept at home by "the hostile measures of Russia; we cannot know how the Emperor Alexander will determine on the fate of my brother and his promised bride, the Princess Scherbatoff, until Lord Gower's arrival, &c. . . . My illustrious friend, Sir Sidney Smith, had not such good fortune; for I perceive that his biographer in the Public Characters, makes his paternal grandfather a sort of Nottingham Tradesman!" Gives interesting particulars as to his origin, &c.

- 937 PORTMAN. A True and Perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattles, Rights, and Creditts which belonged to SIR WILLIAM PORTMAN, late of Orchard-Portman in Co. - 960 ROBERT THE DEVIL. HERE BEGYNNETH THE LYFE OF ROBERTE THE DEUYLL, calf gilt 46 pp. 4to. XVI-XVII CENT.

* * * UNIQUE. Francis Douce has noted in the volume :

This MS. of Robert the Devil appears to have been transcribed, word for word, from an edition in 4^{to}, printed either by Wynkyn de Worde or Pynson, of which I have a fragment consisting of six leaves ; these I have collated with the MS. No mention is made of this edition in Herbert's Typographical Antiquities, nor have I ever seen a complete copy or heard of one. There are no cuts in the fragment. The drawings in the MS. seem to be of the time of Elizabeth or James I.—F. D.

These fourteen most curious half-page drawings are coloured. The volume has been in the hands of Horatio Walpole, J. Brand (with their book-plates), Douce and William Herbert.

- 961 ROCHESTER. Cartulary of Rochester Abbey, from the unique Original in the possession of the Rev. Thos. Streatfield, unpublished 8vo

- 1048 SMITH. HOLOGRAPH LETTER OF ADMIRAL SIR SIDNEY SMITH to Sir John Stuart, with portrait
 4 pp. 4to. Pompée, Policastro Bay, Aug. 6, 1806
 I am distressed beyond measure at learning the Endymion was off Messina on the 30th. I have a letter from her captain . . . sent by him to seek me wherever I might be . . . how he came to quit the precise rendezvous given him off Gaeta by which he missed my dispatches and orders to proceed I cannot conceive or approve . . . It marks the good effects of your victory at this distance and shows the mode of warfare in this quarter, and the necessity of regulating and supporting it. These passes are impregnable if defended . . . I sent two 18-pounder carronades over the mountains with great labour to Lago Negro . . . they had checked the enemy's column with loss and if one regular regiment had been there, we should neither have lost the pass nor the pieces, etc.

Gouvernement, Patriotisme, Religion, Hopitaux Militaires. The author mentions Lords Chatham, Bute, Granby, Ligonier, Spencer, and other well-known men of the period, including Garrick. He appears to have had introductions from M. de Brequigny, the Historian, to Dr. Morton and Matti, Keepers of the British Museum, and to have been well acquainted with the famous John Wilkes, as he was the bearer of letters from the famous Suard to him. On requesting his friend Mr. Cottin to give him Wilkes' address he was much surprised to receive the following reply "Monsieur, me dit il, en bon Anglois, je ne vous dirai pas la demeure de Mr. Wilkes, parceque d'honnêtes gens ne son pas faits pour le voir, informés vous dans la cité au premier passant vous l'apprendrés bien vite, mais ce ne sera pas moi qui vous l'indiquerai."
